

“The Flute & Voice of Libbie Jo”
(What People Are Saying)

“Excellent flutist! Fantastic singer!” Paul Horn

“It’s Wonderful!” Blossom Dearie

“Witty and entertaining.” Scott Yanow, L.A. Jazz Scene

She has an “unusually entertaining show.” Glenn Mitchell, L.A. Jazz Scene

“The lady really cooks!” Haybert Houston, Publisher of JazzNow.com

“Your CD is excellent! Really, really nice vocals. I love it!
Where is my tuxedo and martini?” Derek Sivvers, CDBaby.Com

“A jazzy twist of class!” Bruce Fessier, The Desert Sun, Palm Springs, CA

“Libbie Jo’s multi jazz talent... a great show here, ...her sultry vocals to her effortless flute playing – what a pro!” Grammy-nominated Composer Michael Hoppe

“Beyond being a wonderful flute player, her singing enchants you.
The songs she has written are lovely and interesting.” Jazz Vocalist Sue Raney

“You have a lovely voice with music and lyrics that are easy and sweet and full of life!”
ReVay Seifert, President, Santa Barbara Jazz Society

“I have played and recorded with some of the greatest jazz flutists in America – Libbie Jo is right up there with the best of ‘em. Playing with her is a lot of fun because of the variety of music.”
Henry Franklin, bassist

“It was a pleasure playing for Libbie Jo on this CD. She is a natural musician and that is reflected in both her flute playing and her singing.” Paul Kreibich, drummer

“So many people sent me messages about how much they enjoyed your music. I loved the varied program you selected.” Womens’ Committee for the L.A. Philharmonic

“She is a fine classical and jazz flutist and teacher. ...patient and thorough with students... She inspires flutists of all levels to bring out their best... Paul Kreibich, Drummer